

IN SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

JANUARY 12, 1848.

Submitted, and ordered to be printed.

Mr. JOHNSON, of Louisiana, made the following

REPORT:

[To accompany bill S. No. 76.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill, introduced on leave, for the relief of Fernando Fellanny, report:

That Fellanny was employed by the United States officers as a guide and a hunter in the Florida war, and rendered important services to the army, and while so employed was badly wounded by the Indians; which wound amounts to a total disability.

Not having been mustered into the service as a soldier, the law does not authorize the name of Fellanny to be placed upon the pension roll. Your committee are of opinion, however, that he clearly deserves a pension, and report the bill without amendment.

IN SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JANUARY 12, 1873.

Submitted, and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Johnson, of Louisiana, made the following

REPORT

[To accompany bill S. No. 10.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill, introduced on June 10, 1872, for the relief of Francisco Pellany, report:

That Pellany was employed by the United States officers as a guide and a hunter in the Florida war, and rendered important services to the army, and while so employed was badly wounded by the Indians; which wound amounts to a total disability. Not having been mustered into the service as a soldier, the law does not authorize the name of Pellany to be placed upon the pension roll. Your committee are of opinion, however, that he ably deserves a pension, and report the bill without amendment.
